The Annual Report on Form 10-K, as amended, is available for free on the SEC's Web site at www.sec.gov.

Item 4. The Solicitation or Recommendation

(a) Solicitation or Recommendation.

The Board of Directors thoroughly evaluated and assessed the terms of the Offer together with its outside advisors. The Board of Directors has unanimously determined that the Offer is not in the best interests of the stockholders of the Company and recommends that the Company's stockholders reject the Offer and not tender their Shares to Tender Investors pursuant to the Offer.

Accordingly, the Board of Directors unanimously recommends that the Company's stockholders reject the Offer and not tender Shares for purchase pursuant to the Offer.

(b) Background.

Tender Investors commenced the Offer on August 3, 2010 at a price of $14 per Share. Tender Investors included the following disclosure in its Schedule TO filed August 3, 2010: "The Purchaser is making the Offer for investment purposes and with the intention of making a profit from the ownership of the Shares. In establishing the price of $14.00 per Share, the Purchaser is motivated to establish the lowest price which might be acceptable to Shareholders consistent with the Purchaser's objectives."

The Board of Directors believes that the Offer is an opportunistic attempt to deprive the Company's stockholders who tender shares in the Offer of the potential opportunity to realize the full long-term value of their investment in the Company.

(c) Reasons for the Recommendation.

In reaching the conclusions and in making the recommendation described above, the Board of Directors (1) consulted with the Company's management, as well as the Company's outside advisors; (2) reviewed the terms and conditions of the Offer; (3) considered other information relating to the Company's historical financial performance, portfolio of properties and future opportunities; and (4) evaluated various relevant and material factors in light of the Board of Director's knowledge of the Company's business, financial condition, portfolio of properties and future prospects.

The reasons for the Board of Director's recommendation include, without limitation:

- the fact that the Offer Price for the Class B-3 Common Stock represents an 18.5% discount to the current trading price of the Class A common stock on the New York Stock Exchange ("NYSE") ($17.17 per share on August 13, 2010) and the Class B-3 Common Stock will convert into shares of Class A common stock and will become freely tradable on January 30, 2011;
- the Board of Director's belief that, given the timing of the Offer and the Offer Price, the Offer represents an opportunistic attempt to purchase at a price that is significantly less than the Company's current Class A common stock price and, as a result, deprive the Company's stockholders who tender shares in the Offer of the potential opportunity to realize the full long-term value of their investment in the Company; however, there can be no assurance as to the actual long term value of the Company's shares as such value is dependent on a number of factors including general economic conditions and the other factors discussed in Item 8 "Additional Information";
- the fact that (1) the Offer is conditioned upon Tender Investors obtaining financing to purchase the Shares tendered in the Offer, (2) Tender Investors has commitments from its members to finance the purchase of only approximately 20% of the shares sought in the Offer (the "Initial Shares"), and (3) if Tender Investors is unable to obtain sufficient additional financing, or if its members default on all or a portion of their commitments, Tender Investors may not be able to pay the Offer Price for all or a portion of the Shares sought in the Offer; in addition, Tender Investors has explicitly acknowledged that "Should either the members default on their binding commitments to fund the purchase of the Initial Shares or the Purchaser be unable to obtain additional investments to fund the entire purchase price, Purchaser has no alternative financing plan";
- the Board of Director's significant knowledge of the strength of the Company's assets;
- discussions with Morgan Stanley & Co. Incorporated and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. regarding the current status of financial markets both in the U.S. and abroad; and
- the fact that Tender Investors will reduce the Offer Price by ordinary dividends paid by the Company and stockholders who tender shares in the Offer will not receive the third quarter $0.315 per common share dividend declared August 10, 2010 by the Board of Directors and payable to shareholders of record on September 15, 2010.

In view of the number of reasons and complexity of these matters, the Board of Directors did not find it practicable to, nor did it attempt to, quantify, rank or otherwise assign relative weight to the specific reasons considered.

In light of the reasons considered above, the Board of Directors has unanimously determined that the Offer is not in the best interests of the Company's stockholders. Accordingly, the Board of Directors unanimously recommends that the stockholders reject the Offer and not tender their Shares to Tender Investors for purchase pursuant to the Offer. The Board of Directors acknowledges that each stockholder must evaluate whether to tender its shares to Tender Investors pursuant to the Offer and that an individual stockholder may determine to tender based on, among other things, its individual liquidity needs.

(d) Intent to Tender.

As of August 11, 2010, our directors and executive officers as a group beneficially owned an aggregate of 77,131 shares of Class B-3 Common Stock, representing 0.2% of the total number of outstanding shares of Class B-3 Common Stock. Our directors and executive officers are entitled to participate in the Offer on the same basis as other stockholders; however, all of our directors and executive officers have advised us that they do not intend to tender any of their shares in the Offer (including shares they are deemed to beneficially own). To the best knowledge of the Company, none of the Company's subsidiaries or other affiliates currently intends to tender shares held of record or beneficially by such person for purchase pursuant to the Offer.

Item 5. Person/Assets Retained, Employed, Compensated or Used

Not applicable.

Item 6. Interest in Securities of the Subject Company

Except as described below, during the past 60 days, no transactions with respect to the Common Stock have been effected by the Company or, to the Company's best knowledge, by any of its executive officers, directors, affiliates or subsidiaries. On August 9, 2010, pursuant to the terms of the Company's charter, each share of the Company's outstanding Class B-1 common stock was converted into one share of the Company's Class A common stock. Each stockholder of the Company, including directors and executive officers, had all of his or her Class B-1 common shares converted in this manner.

Item 7. Purposes of the Transaction and Plans or Proposals

The Company has not undertaken and is not engaged in any negotiations in response to the Offer which relate to: (i) a tender offer or other acquisition of the Company's securities by the Company, any of its subsidiaries or any other person; (ii) an extraordinary transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation involving the Company or any of its subsidiaries; (iii) a purchase, sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company or any of its subsidiaries; or (iv) any material change in the present dividend rate or policy, or indebtedness or capitalization of the Company. Additionally, there is no transaction, board resolution, agreement in principle, or signed contract in response to the Offer which relates to or would result in one or more of the foregoing matters.

Item 8. Additional Information

Certain statements contained in this Schedule 14D-9 other than historical facts may be considered forward-looking statements. Such statements are subject to certain risks and uncertainties, as well as known and unknown risks, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected or anticipated. Therefore, such statements are not intended to be a guarantee of the Company's performance in future periods. Such forward-looking statements can generally be identified by the Company's use of forward-looking terminology such as "may," "will," "expect," "intend," "anticipate," "estimate," "believe," "continue" or other similar words. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date this Schedule 14D-9 is filed with the SEC. The Company makes no representation or warranty (express or implied) about the accuracy of any such forward-looking statements contained in this Schedule 14D-9, and the Company does not intend to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Any such forward-looking statements are subject to unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors and are based on a number of assumptions involving judgments with respect to, among other things, future economic, competitive and market conditions, all of which are difficult or impossible to predict accurately. To the extent that the Company's assumptions differ from actual results, the Company's ability to meet such forward-looking statements, including the Company's ability to generate positive cash flow from operations, provide dividends to stockholders and maintain the value of the Company's real estate properties, may be significantly hindered. Some of the risks and uncertainties, although not all risks and uncertainties, which could cause actual results to differ materially from those presented in certain forward-looking statements are as follows:

- Conditions in the credit and financial markets, availability of financing, interest rates, and other factors, all of which are beyond the Company's control, affect the real estate market and the value of the Company's assets, which consequently affects the value of your investment in the Company and the price of the Common Stock;
- The market for the shares of the Company's common stock, including the market for the shares of Class A common stock on the NYSE, may be volatile, and there is no guarantee that the future trading price of the Company's common stock will remain in excess of the Offer Price;
- As shares of the Company's Class B-3 Common Stock are currently not listed on a national exchange, there is no established public trading market for shares of the Class B-3 Common Stock. Such shares of Class B-3 Common Stock will not convert into shares of our Class A common stock (which is listed on the NYSE) until January 30, 2011. In addition, the Company has terminated its share redemption program. Consequently, there is the risk that you may not be able to sell the Company's Class B-3 Common Stock at a time or price acceptable to you;
- The Company depends on tenants for its revenue, and accordingly, lease terminations and/or tenant defaults, particularly by one of the Company's large, lead tenants, could adversely affect the income produced by the Company's properties, which may harm the Company's operating performance;
- The impact of competition on the Company's efforts to renew existing leases or re-let space on terms similar to existing leases;
- The Company may expend significant capital in our efforts to re-let space following lease expirations or terminations, which may adversely affect the Company's operating results;
- Changes in the economies and other conditions of the office market in general and of the specific markets in which we operate, particularly in Chicago, Washington, D.C., and the New York metropolitan area;
- The Company's growth will partially depend upon future acquisitions of properties, and the Company may not be successful in identifying and consummating suitable acquisitions that meet the Company's investment criteria, which may impede the Company's growth and negatively affect the Company's results of operations;
- If the Company uses significant cash balances and debt capacity to repurchase shares of the Company's common stock, the Company would have a reduced capacity to acquire additional properties, which could impede the Company's growth;
- The Company's cash flows from operations depend significantly on market rents and the ability of its tenants to make rental payments. A general economic downturn, such as the one currently occurring, or a downturn in one of the Company's core markets, could adversely influence the Company's lease renewals and market rent rates that would in turn negatively impact the Company's operating cash flows. In the event the economy continues to deteriorate or capital expenditure requirements necessary to maintain the Company's properties increase, the Company may choose to lower the dividend rather than put pressure on its investment grade credit rating or accumulate significant borrowings to meet a dividend level higher than operating cash flow would support;

- Failure to qualify as a REIT would reduce the Company's net income and cash available for distributions. Even if the Company qualifies as a REIT, the Company may incur certain tax liabilities that would reduce the Company's cash flow and impair the Company's ability to make distributions or to meet the annual distribution requirement for REITs;
- The Company depends on key personnel, including, but not limited to, Donald A. Miller, Robert E. Bowers, Laura P. Moon, Raymond L. Owens and Carroll A. Reddic, each of whom would be difficult to replace;
- Potential environmental liabilities relating to the Company's properties;
- Adverse market and economic conditions and related impairments to the Company's real estate assets and other intangible assets; and
- Provisions of the Company's organizational documents, including a limitation on the number of shares a person may own, and provisions of Maryland law may discourage third parties from pursuing a change of control transaction that could involve a premium price for the Company's common stock or otherwise benefit the Company's stockholders.

In addition to the foregoing, the Company faces certain additional risks as described more fully in the sections entitled "Item 1A. Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2009, as amended, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Piedmont Recommends Rejection of Below Market Tender Offer by Tender Investors, LLC

- Shares of Class A common stock which are freely tradable on the NYSE closed at $17.17 on August 13, 2010
- Shares of Class B-3 common stock will convert into Class A common stock and become freely tradable in January 2011 — the tender offer price for such Class B-3 shares is $14

Atlanta - August 16, 2010 - Piedmont Office Realty Trust, Inc. (“Piedmont”) has been notified of an unsolicited tender offer by Series C (PDM B-3) of Tender Investors, LLC (“Tender Investors”) to purchase up to 2,100,000 shares of the Class B-3 common stock of Piedmont at a price of $14 per share. Piedmont is not in any way affiliated with Tender Investors, and believes this offer is not in the best interests of its stockholders. The Board of Directors of Piedmont has carefully evaluated the terms of Tender Investors’ offer and unanimously recommends that stockholders reject Tender Investors’ offer and not tender their shares.

Piedmont has filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) a Schedule 14D-9 providing a detailed response to Tender Investors’ offer. Piedmont encourages stockholders to read the Schedule 14D-9 before making a decision regarding the offer. Stockholders may review and obtain copies of the Schedule 14D-9 and all amendments thereto free of charge at the SEC’s website at <http://www.sec.gov> and at Piedmont’s website at <http://investor.piedmontreit.com>.

Please review the Schedule 14D-9 for a complete discussion of the reasons why Piedmont believes the offer is not in the best interests of its stockholders. Some of those reasons are as follows:

- the fact that the offer price for the Class B-3 common stock represents an 18.5% discount to the current trading price of the Class A common stock on the New York Stock Exchange (“NYSE”) ($17.17 per share on August 13, 2010) and the Class B-3 common stock will convert into shares of Class A common stock and will become freely tradable on January 30, 2011;
- Piedmont believes that, given the timing of the offer and the offer price, the offer represents an opportunistic attempt to purchase at a price that is significantly less than Piedmont’s current Class A common stock price and, as a result, deprive its stockholders who tender shares in the offer of the potential opportunity to realize the full long-term value of their investment in Piedmont;
- the fact that (1) the offer is conditioned upon Tender Investors obtaining financing to purchase the shares tendered in the offer, (2) Tender Investors has commitments from its members to finance the purchase of only approximately 20% of the shares sought in the Offer (the “Initial Shares”) and (3) if Tender Investors is unable to obtain sufficient additional financing, or if its members default on all or a portion of their commitments, Tender Investors may not be able to pay the offer price for all or a portion of the shares sought in the offer; in addition, Tender Investors has explicitly acknowledged that “Should either the members default on their binding commitments to fund the purchase of the Initial Shares or the Purchaser be unable to obtain additional investments to fund the entire purchase price, Purchaser has no alternative financing plan”; and
- the fact that Tender Investors will reduce the offer price by ordinary dividends paid by Piedmont and stockholders who tender shares in the offer will not receive the third quarter $0.315 per common share dividend declared August 10, 2010 by the Board of Directors and payable to shareholders of record on September 15, 2010.

On February 10, 2010, Piedmont’s Class A common stock began trading on the NYSE. Subject to the provisions of Piedmont’s charter, shares of Piedmont’s Class B-1, B-2 and B-3 common stock converted or will convert automatically into shares of Piedmont’s Class A common stock on a one-for-one basis on August 9, 2010, November 7, 2010 and January 30, 2011, respectively. Piedmont expects that, upon conversion, the shares will become tradable on the NYSE.

Stockholders with questions about this tender offer or other matters should contact an investor services representative at 800-557-4830 or via e-mail at investor.services@PiedmontReit.com.
